Psalm 10:
Past Predicts the Future
King David Speaks
To Our Generation

¹ Why, O LORD, do you stand far away? Why do you hide yourself in times of trouble?

² In arrogance the wicked hotly pursue the poor; let them be caught in the schemes that they have devised.

³ For the wicked
boasts of the desires
of his soul, and the one greedy for gain
curses and
renounces the LORD.

⁴ In the pride of his face the wicked does not seek him; all his thoughts are, "There is no God."

⁵ His ways prosper at all times; your judgments are on high, out of his sight; as for all his foes, he puffs at them.

⁶ He says in his heart, "I shall not be moved; throughout all generations I shall not meet adversity."

⁷ His mouth is filled with cursing and deceit and oppression; under his tongue are mischief and iniquity.

8 He sits in ambush
in the villages; in hiding places he murders the innocent. His eyes stealthily watch for
the helpless;

9 he lurks in ambush like a lion in his thicket; he lurks that he may seize the poor; he seizes the poor when he draws him into his net.

10 The helpless are crushed, sink down, and fall by his might.

11 He says in his heart, "God has forgotten, he has hidden his face, he will never see it."

12 Arise, O LORD; O
God, lift up your hand; forget not the afflicted.

13 Why does the wicked renounce God and say in his heart, "You will not call to account"?

14 But you do see, for you note mischief and vexation, that you may take it into your hands; to you the helpless commits himself; you have been the helper of the fatherless.

15 Break the arm of the wicked and evildoer; call his wickedness to account till you find none.

16 The LORD is king
forever and ever;
the nations perish
from his land.

17 O LORD, you hear
the desire of the afflicted; you will strengthen their heart; you will incline your ear

18 to do justice to the fatherless and the oppressed, so that man who is of the earth may strike terror no more.

The Lord is Our Only Hope

- As wars and rumor of wars swirl around us . . .
- As drought and hunger increase across the land . . .
- As plague and pestilence stalk us by night . . .
- As the wicked swell up in the pride of their flesh. . .
- As evil ones plot and scheme . . .

Psalm 33:18-19

Behold, the eye of the LORD is on those who fear him, on those who hope in his steadfast love, that he may deliver their soul from death and keep them alive in famine.

Psalm 32:6-7

Therefore let everyone who is godly offer prayer to you at a time when you may be found; surely in the rush of great waters, they shall not reach him. You are a hiding place for me; you preserve me from trouble; you surround me with shouts of deliverance.
